

safety culture by beehive

SAFETY CULTURE SEMINAR –

‘Change the conversation change the culture’

This free event is intended to:

- Share the results of research undertaken by leading safety training provider Beehive with Bangor University into safety culture
- Introduce Beehive’s trust-based safety culture model, the D2iT
- Experience approaches to developing safety behaviours using Brathay’s unique learning environment

Dress code - comfortable clothes suitable for the outdoors

Overnight accommodation available October 10th 2019. Contact Erja on Erja.nikander@brathay.org.uk or 015394 39725 for details

Collaboration between Beehive, safety culture specialists & Brathay Trust, delivering training and development in the nuclear industry on the West Coast for 25yrs.

WHO:

Strategic managers and leaders from high reliability/safety critical sectors with responsibility for/interest in OHS, Human Performance and safety culture

WHEN:

October 11th 2019
9am – 4pm
workshop

*(October 10th 2019
7pm informal dinner)*

WHERE:

Brathay Hall,
Clappersgate,
Ambleside, Cumbria
LA22 0HP

Contact:

Sara Lodge at sara@beecl.d.co.uk
for more details

Places are limited.
Please inform us if you are unable to attend.